

A

P

r

i

I

From the classroom of:

Mrs. Benjamin Ms. Sturdivant & Ms. Jefferson

During April We Will . . .

- Continuing to learn letters are different from numbers.
- Recalling main events in different stories, settings, and characters
- Engaging in conversations using language to enter into play situations.
- Choosing independently to read or pretend to read books in different classroom settings.
- Segmenting beginning sounds in words (dog/door, apple/ant).
- Identifying, rote counting, and recalling numbers 1-20.
- Preparing students for Kindergarten.

Helpful Hints and Friendly Tips

- WOW!! Time has flown by...can you believe there are only about 2 more months left in our school year.
- Please know that we are here to support you and your child daily. If you would like to have an exit conference, please let us know.
- Our classroom door is always open. If you have any activities that reflect our unit of study please feel free to come share them with us. We would love you have you!!
- Please continue reading daily!! Most of our students have read 100 books!! Way to go friends!!

Classroom Needs & Reminders

- The weather is changing daily. Please dress accordingly. We suggest that your child dress in layers.
- If you are able to purchase any of these items for our classroom we would greatly appreciate it: large (gallon size) zip lock bags, markers, Clorox wipes, baby wipes, and tissue.
- PPVT testing will take place for our students April 24th and April 25th. Please make sure that they get plenty of sleep.

Upcoming Events

- April 7th is a Teacher Workday (NO SCHOOL)
- April 10th to April 14th is Spring Break (NO SCHOOL) School will resume on April 17th
- PPVT testing for our students is: April 24th and April 25th
- April 26th is an Early Release Day at 11:45 am
- April 28th is a uniform free day